

Information Needed to Complete the Statement of Economic Interests

- Candidate information (if applicable), including office sought and agency type
- Personal contact information, including name, address, email address, and phone number
- Public position information (elected official, appointed official, employee, etc.) and agency name(s)
- Employment information for any non-government work performed during the reporting year
- Spouse's employment information
- Total household income range
- Family member information, including:
 - Spouse's name, address, and employer/business
 - Dependent names, addresses, and employment (if any)
 - Names of living adult children
 - Names of parents (living and deceased)
 - Names of siblings (living and deceased)
 - Names of spouse's living parents
- Income sources for you, your spouse, and dependents, including:
 - Salaries
 - Fees
 - Dividends
 - Profits
 - Commissions
 - Interest income
 - Other compensation
- Names of businesses from which income was received and the applicable income range

- Information regarding ownership of 5% or more of any business by you, your spouse, or dependents
- Information regarding service as an officer, director, trustee, or consultant for any business
- Income received from those business positions (if applicable)
- Outstanding debts owed to businesses operating in Alabama as of December 31 of the reporting year
- For public officials, information regarding rent or lease income received from Alabama governmental agencies, including details of any lease or rental agreements
- Certification and signature affirming the accuracy of the information provided