

Who must file a Statement of Economic Interests Form?

Code of Alabama Section 36-25-14 lists the following answer:

- All elected public officials at the state, county, or municipal level of government or their instrumentalities.
- Any person appointed as a public official and any person employed as a public employee at the state, county, or municipal level of government or their instrumentalities who occupies a position whose base pay is ninety-seven thousand dollars ($97,000) or more annually. (This figure was adjusted on December 9, 2022 to reflect changes in the U.S. Department of Labor's Consumer Price Index. It is effective as of January 1, 2023 for the 2022 Statement of Economic Interests filings.)
- All candidates, provided the statement is filed on the date the candidate files his or her qualifying papers or, in the case of an independent candidate, on the date the candidate complies with the requirements of Section 17-9-3.
- Members of the Alabama Ethics Commission; appointed members of boards and commissions having statewide jurisdiction (but excluding members of solely advisory boards).
- All full-time non-merit employees, other than those employed in maintenance, clerical, secretarial, or other similar positions.
